

Robert Zeydelis

Aiming to use my data analytics, problem-solving and creativity skills to help companies make better data-driven decisions.

robert.zeydelis@gmail.com

1-917-676-9430

Work Experience

Mu Sigma, Inc.

Associate

Apr 2016 - Present

- Currently leading a team of 3 analysts to create a baseline pricing model and portfolio optimization for a Global Strategy Insights & Analytics team
- Run information gatherings, updates and project presentations with stakeholders
- Completed a 6 month training program in India learning Statistics, R, SQL and Python.
- Created an on-time performance forecast for a large US airliner.
- Created executive dashboards and various finance forecasts for a large pharmaceutical company
- Won an impact award and increased my account size by $360,000 by implementing Intelligent Reporting into my sub-group
- Create a heat map with public crime data showing which stores needed more security for a large retailer

Praxell

Analyst Intern

Jun 2015 – Oct 2015

- Created and analyzed financial reports and provided business recommendations to executives
- Provided anti-money laundering reports daily by screening for potential anti-money laundering and identify theft cases

Skills & Competencies

Python

R

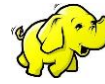

SQL

JavaScript

Tableau

Hadoop

CSS

Analytical Mindset

Communication

Close attention to detail

Entrepreneurial Spirit

Education

Binghamton University

BA Economics 2012 – 2015

Additional Information

Leadership

Founder's Track (Mu Sigma)

Jun 2016 – Present

Enablers of Confidence, Recruitment, Intelligent Reporting and Head of Innovation and Development Lab

College of Staten Island Association

2011 – 2012

Board of Directors

Hobbies

Soccer | Basketball | Fitness | Investing | Business |

Reading | Traveling | Camping | Fishing | Philanthropy